

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Wade Messer

858.674.6604

wmesser@messerandcompany.com

MESSER AND COMPANY, INC.

NAMES DEAN R. ISAACS AS VICE PRESIDENT

San Diego, CA, September 1, 2006 – Messer and Company, Inc. named Dean R. Isaacs as Vice President of the company. He will be responsible for advising clients in the areas of business management, marketing, employee development and training, he will also be supervising all aspects of the firm's new client development.

Messer and Company offers more than 25 niche management, marketing and training services to assist business leaders in professional, construction, manufacturing, biotech, banking and distribution companies take their organizations to the next level. Clients range from mid-size to large companies throughout the southwest part of the United States.

Isaacs has more than 15 years experience developing solutions for his clients. Isaacs has served as Owner, General Manager, VP of Sales and Director of Business Development for companies in San Diego, San Jose, Denver, Nashville and London, England.

Wade Messer, President, said "Dean has been with us for four years and has proven himself as invaluable to not only us, but the clients he serves as well. We are very pleased to have his leadership in our firm."

Isaacs indicated "I am proud to be part of an organization that makes a difference with the clients we serve. I look forward to helping Messer and Company continue to grow and assist business leaders in achieving their organizations goals."

Messer and Company, Inc. is based in San Diego with clients in California, Colorado, Arizona and Nevada.